

Maleny Golf Club

Beth Glover – Bed, Med, Dip Teach

Beth was born in Sydney and spent most of her childhood in the south west of Western Australia where a love of swimming, tennis and hockey developed. Later Beth graduated from High School in Swan Hill, Victoria.

Beth subsequently attended University of Queensland and Mt Gravatt Teacher's College and has Diploma Teaching – major in Physical Education, a Bachelor of Education and a Master of Education - Language and Literacy.

During her time in Brisbane Beth played Division 1 Hockey but did not take up golf until a move to Toowoomba where she participated in a six-week ladies program run by the pro at Middle Ridge Golf Club.

Prior to retirement Beth enjoyed a 40-year career with Education Queensland in many rural, regional and metropolitan teaching positions and administrative roles. In 1981 Beth spent a year living in Toronto Canada where she enjoyed learning to ski while doing volunteer support work for school excursions.

Since retiring to Maleny Beth has maintained her skills doing contract teaching in schools in the Sunshine Coast region. Throughout her career Beth has organised many school sports carnivals, camps, excursions, parent information events and curriculum workshops.

Beth brings to the Management Committee an array of valued work-related skills such as organisation, teamwork, communication, implementation of procedures and policy, critical thinking, governance, strategic planning and time management.