Rob McConnell – Member PGA Australia

Rob, a PGA member and Australasian and European Tour player, is an experienced golf club professional who owned and operated the pro shop at Warwick Golf Club on Queensland's Darling Downs for 8 years until 2016.

This entailed stocking and selling equipment and apparel, providing golf lessons and clinics, managing club competitions, social golf play, green fees, visiting social groups, and operating a fleet of 16 motorised golf carts and a driving range.

During this time Rob also operated a travelling golf shop servicing 13 regional and remote golf clubs in south western Queensland including Boonah, Charleville, Cunnamulla, Dunkeld, Dirranbandi, Injune, Mitchell, Mungindi, Pittsworth, Quilpe, Roma, St George and Stanthorpe. This business operated ten months a year using purpose built caravan.

Previously Rob was the Manager Golf Operations for the Turtle Point Golf Course at the Laguna Whitsundays Resort from 2006 to 2008. There Rob was employed to manage staff, equipment and sales, lessons, driving range and social and group bookings for Australia's former No.1 public access golf course.

Rob, who owned and operated a start-up golf school for university students at St Andrews, Scotland, has also previously worked at the Caloundra Golf Club and owned and operated the Pro Shop at Maryborough Golf Club.
